

Annex 7 Further Players

7.1. German Academic Exchange Service

In 2010 and 2011, the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) funded a total of 23 scholarships worth about €150,000.

7.2. Public-Private Partnership Programme

Germany highlights the Public-Private Partnership (PPP) Programme which strengthens the effects of official development cooperation and private business activities by co-financing mutual projects. Most of these activities are integrated in current bilateral programmes such as the Regional Economic Development Programme. In 2010, two activities were implemented with total funding of €252,094.

7.3. DEG - German Investment and Development Company

DEG – German Investment and Development Company has the mandate to finance private sector investment in developing countries and is wholly owned by KfW Group. In Cambodia, DEG is currently financing ACLEDA Bank with tier II loans (subordinated loans) totalling €22 million and two Public-Private Partnership activities, one in waste / sewage infrastructure and one in agriculture, with a total of €815,280.

7.4. Senior Expert Service

The Senior Expert Service (SES) seconds highly qualified retired experts on short-term missions. Since 1995, SES has carried out a total of 138 assignments in Cambodia.

7.5. Development Volunteers Service “weltwärts” (“world-wards”) Programme

For the 2011-2012 period, there will be 17 “weltwärts” volunteers in Cambodia working with 13 partner organisations there. The volunteers will be carrying out work in the areas of childcare and education, social services and environment. The idea behind the volunteer service is the successful formula of “learning by serving”. It will enhance intercultural understanding and help increase awareness and acceptance within society of how development policy issues impact on our common future.
