Hereby Decided

Article 1:

To require that the processing fees be paid for the examination and approval of application for tax exempted importation of equipment and materials for implementing any investment or technical assistance projects in the framework of bilateral, multilateral aid and NGOs.

Article 2:

Agencies implementing projects, in the framework of bilateral, multilateral and NGOs, shall correctly and adequately prepare the necessary documents relevant to the request for duty free importation in compliance with the Prakas of the Council for Development of Cambodia No. 2337 /97 date August 11, 1997 on the guidance for implementation of the Royal government's Circular No.03 dated June 12 , 1997 on Forms and Procedures for the request for tax exemption for the importation of Equipment and Materials in framework of Grant, Loan and Humanitarian Aid and submit to Cambodian Rehabilitation and Development Board (CDC/ CRDB) , 10 days before the arrival of equipment and materials.

Article 3:

After examination if the application for duty free importation of equipment and materials is seen to be correct and adequately as stated in article 2 above, the implementing agencies shall pay fee for the processing of examining and approval on the application in an amount of Forty Thousand (40.000) Riels for each request to the CDC/ CRDB. CDC/ CRDB shall, then, issue a receipt of the amount of fee paid to the requesting agency.

Article 4:

Revenues accrued from the processing fees, as stated in article 3 above, shall be used for overhead and operating expenses for the continued functioning of the CDC/ CRDB.

Article 5:

All project implementing agencies shall effectively implement this Prakas.

Article 6:

This Prakas shall be effective from July 15 , 2001 onward.
