

Making Partnerships Effective

Summary of Perspectives

What each partner brings to the TWG

September 2009

What each Partner brings ...

From Government
Partners

- What do we contribute to the TWG partnership?
- What more could we contribute?
- What else would we like our partners to contribute?

From Development
Partners

Looking at the situation from different perspectives

What do we contribute to the TWG partnership?

Government Partners

- Knowledge and information flows
  - Transparency, trust and equity
  - Willingness to listen and cooperate
  - Leadership and authority
  - Human resources
-

Development Partners

- Information
- Funds, technical resources and small scale support
- Strategic and long term approach
- Openness and collaboration
- Understanding of both sides

What more could we contribute?

Government Partners

- Greater trust and transparency
  - Better leadership
  - Stronger government systems
  - Better monitoring
  - More incentives for new partners
-

Development Partners

- More open communication
- Improved accountability
- More focus on activities and delivery
- Joint planning approaches

What else would you like your partners to contribute?

Government Partners

- All their research and other information
  - Help develop the capacity of ministry staff
  - More trust and transparency
  - More sensitivity and understanding of government constraints
  - More respect for government commitment
-

Development Partners

- Better line ministry coordination
- More focus on strategic vision
- More leadership
- Better dissemination of information